

Stem Cell Treatment: Patient Document Checklist

beststemcellinthailand — request these documents in writing before paying or traveling.

1. Cell source & donor

- Written statement of cell type (MSC, HSC, exosomes) and tissue source
- Autologous or allogeneic origin clearly stated
- Donor screening report (infectious disease panel, medical history)
- Donor consent and traceability / batch ID

2. Laboratory & licensing

- Name and address of the processing laboratory
- Lab licence / GMP certification and Thai FDA status
- Who processed the cells and under which standard operating procedures

3. Certificate of Analysis (batch-specific)

- Viability % and testing method (e.g. 7-AAD / trypan blue)
- Total cell count and counting method
- Identity markers (MSC: CD73, CD90, CD105 positive; CD34, CD45 negative)
- Passage number
- Sterility test (bacteria and fungi)
- Mycoplasma test
- Endotoxin test

4. Storage & transport

- Fresh or cryopreserved; thawing protocol
- Cold-chain / temperature log from lab to clinic
- Time from release to administration

5. Medical & clinical

- Administering physician name, licence and specialty
- Pre-treatment medical assessment and suitability review
- Dose, route of administration and number of sessions in writing
- Written informed consent listing risks and alternatives
- Adverse-event and emergency plan; follow-up schedule

6. Commercial terms

- Itemised price and what is included
- Refund and cancellation policy
- No guaranteed-cure or pressure claims

Educational guidance only; not medical advice. Treatment suitability must be assessed by a qualified medical professional.